America Star Books, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Rico was a troubled soul. His whole life was filled with dysfunctional thoughts that paved a path of misfortune and murder. The eldest of three children, his was a struggle to just maintain sanity. Rico s father was a product of a generation where family values were non-existent. His mother s life was a prison. Jenny was trapped within herself and a wall of mental and physical abuse. Rico s siblings were young and they had no idea that they too would soon be targeted by Rueben; their alcoholic and abusive father. Jenny wanted more for her children but she couldn t pull herself from under the barriers of brutality. When Rico found out just how far his abusive father would go, he decided to take matters into his own hands. Rico stood up to the man who gave him life. During the confrontation, Rico murdered and then buried the man that failed him and the rest of the family. Rueben was gone, but was he really dead? After he murdered Rueben the attraction to what Rico thought was his father s reflection in the mirror caused him to do unspeakable things. Was it Rueben; Rico s abusive father or was it the killer that is within us all? No one knows what one will do when pressure is added to an already decadent life. Whatever it was that caused Rico to kill; it was stronger than his reason. Rico s only stable relationship was with Carla. Carla was the only woman other than his mother that ever gave a damn about him and his life of uncertainty. How long the image and the voices allow...
