Reviews

An exceptional ebook along with the typeface employed was intriguing to see. It really is simplistic but surprises within the fifty percent of the ebook. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Memorial of the Organization and First Re-Union of the New York Association of Hamilton Alumni Many, also, who were absent in body, sent warm-hearted letters to evince their presence in spirit. The Executive Committee immediately set about preparing for the re-union, and soon issued, and sent to each living alumnus, whose address they could learn, the following circular: To Dear Sir, Pursuant to a call issued by circular and by notices in the daily papers, a number of the alumni of Hamilton College, resident in this city and neighborhood, met at No. 37 Lafayette Place on the 17th inst., to form a local organization and arrange for an annual re-union. The meeting was quite large, well representing the character and position of the alumni in and about the city, and was the occasion of many gratifying surprises and renewals of younger friendships, and altogether very cordial and pleasant. Both the addresses of those present, and letters from absent ones, evinced the most favorable feeling, and expressed an unqualified wish that the design of the meeting might be most fully carried out. An association was formed, to consist of graduates, recipients of ad eundem or honorary degrees, and those students of Hamilton who have not completed a collegiate course. Officers and a committee were appointed, a list of whose names appears on the reverse of this circular. The object of the association is purely social and friendly, and everything tending to use it as a financial agent of the College will be excluded. The First Re-union of the New York Association of Hamilton Alumni is to take place on Thursday evening, January 21st, 1869, at the...
