Pen, Pad Rifle is the story of a young woman s search for self-belief in the unlikely setting of today s Australian Army. Zenith joined the Army on a whim hoping to become a medic and instead found herself driving a Unimog truck and jumping in and out of gun pits. As a female private soldier, she quickly realised she was caught in a system that effectively disempowered her and that realisation marked the beginning of her fight for self-assertion and to forge a career of her own choosing. A six-month stint in war-torn Baghdad marked a turning point that saw Zenith finally win her battle to realise a dream and train as a reporter with the Army s newspaper, Army News. As an Army reporter, Zenith traversed not only her own country, but was pitched into many of the Australian Defence Force s overseas operations, from pre-election tension in strife-torn Solomon Islands, heartbreak and hardship in flood-ravaged Pakistan and the tough and emotional struggle of the bitter conflict in Afghanistan. Along the way, Zenith wages her own war to forge a successful career and develop the confidence to take charge of her own destiny. This is a book that tells a story rarely told - life in the Army from the perspective of a female private soldier. Zenith King doesn t pretend it was an easy life - but what comes across very clearly is her extraordinary determination and resilience. Her journey is both inspirational and deeply satisfying.
